

Acute migraine treatment aims to stop attacks, or reduce headache severity and other associated symptoms

Summary of goals for acute migraine treatment from the 2021 AHS Consensus Statement:

Provide rapid symptomatic relief without recurrence

Restore function

Minimize the need for rescue medications or repeat dosing

Optimize self-care and reduce healthcare utilization

Minimize adverse events

Reduce overall treatment costs